We had excellent nominations from each of the Military Departments and from DLA. I sincerely appreciate all of the hard work that your staffs did in both soliciting nominees from the field and then in screening candidates. I think you will agree that the winners are truly deserving of recognition.

The award ceremony and reception are scheduled for April 17, 2002, from 1:00 to 2:00 at a hotel in Crystal City, Arlington, VA. Mr. Allen W. Beckett, Principal Assistant Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Logistics and Materiel Readiness will present the awards. You, your DepSO, the winners' commanders and their immediate family will all be invited to attend. Please notify your departmental winners and arrange for their attendance at the April 17 ceremony. The DSP ceremony action officer, Mrs. Sharon Strickland (703-767-6870), will work with your DepSO regarding the complete attendance list and other details in order to make this day a memorable event.

I know I have your full support for the upcoming ceremony and I look forward to seeing everyone on April 17.
